

MRS. OSBORNE SENTENCED.

The Once Society Leader Pleads Guilty and Gets Nine Months.

LONDON, March 9.—Mrs. Florence Ethel Osborne, against whom the grand jury a few days ago returned a true bill for larceny and perjury, was arraigned for trial in the old Bailey to-day. She pleaded guilty to the charges against her and was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment at hard labor. This ends, so far as the public is concerned, a case that has excited world-wide comment. A large crowd of fashionable people, including many ladies, assembled this morning, and as soon as the court room was opened there was a general scramble for seats.

At 9:50 o'clock Captain Osborne entered the court room alone. He was followed by Mrs. Hargreaves and her husband. Mrs. Osborne had been brought from the Holloway jail in a cab, being escorted by her husband. When the prisoner was brought into court Captain Osborne took his seat beside the dock. Mrs. Osborne paid no attention whatever to her surroundings. She kept her handkerchief to her eyes and wept bitterly. She was called upon to stand up and the charges of theft and perjury were read to her. When the reading was concluded she pleaded guilty to both charges.

The court then imposed a sentence of nine months' imprisonment at hard labor, adding, however, that the labor would be such as the prison doctor would permit.

Captain Osborne had a short interview with his wife after sentence had been imposed upon her. He then left the court room and returned to his house, greatly affected at his wife's position. His friends express much sympathy for him in his deep affliction, and highly praise the warm and unwavering devotion he showed for his unfortunate wife during the trying ordeal through which both of them have passed. In the lobbies of the house of commons this evening the Osborne case was the chief topic of conversation on all sides. There was a strong current of sympathy for Mrs. Osborne and the opinion was generally expressed that taking everything into consideration the sentence ought to have been lighter.

Praise for Stimulator Hirsch.

LONDON, March 9.—The Daily News to-day prints an article praising the action of Mr. Hirsch, the American minister to Turkey, in protesting to the porte against the decree ordering all schools to procure a license from the government or close. The News says that the English and American Bible missionary societies in Constantinople announce that of late years the friendly attitude of the government has quite changed.

Vexatious restraints are now placed on them and obstacles are placed in their way in defiance of even the Turkish law. But these laws affect others besides Americans, and it is probable that representations against the action of the porte will shortly be made by the English, American and German ministers at Constantinople.

Gilroy Gets His Divorce.

LONDON, March 9.—In the divorce court to-day, in the case of Gilroy against Gilroy, Mr. Gilroy was granted a decree nisi, with costs against the co-defendant.

Mr. Gilroy formerly owned a ranch near San Francisco and while living there he married Miss Ella Frances Kellogg.

What Tolstoi Suppressed.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 9.—Several of the ministers believe that the letters of Count Tolstoi published in foreign papers giving accounts of the distress prevailing in Russia should be stopped, and as a means to this end they have urged the czar to place the count under arrest. His majesty refused to listen to the advice of his ministers.

All Love but One.

LONDON, March 9.—A telegram has been received here from the German consulate at Port Said, stating that the cook of the German steamer Messina has been landed there. The cook reports that the Messina foundered off the Sicily Isles during a gale on February 19. It is believed that the rest of the crew, 24 in number, were lost.

Mr. Deacon Released on Bail.

GRASSE, FRANCE, March 9.—Edward Parker Deacon was taken from prison at 5 o'clock this afternoon and released under bonds of 10,000 francs. He complained that his cell was so damp that he has contracted rheumatism. His cheeks are pale and hollow and he has a slight cough. His eyes are sunken and he speaks listlessly.

Brigands at Work.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 9.—Brigands are plundering the inhabitants of the towns and villages in Asiatic Russia, and highway robberies and deeds of violence are of frequent occurrence. The thieves, made bold by their successes, do not hesitate to pillage the houses of the Russian officials.

A Socialist Presides Over Paris.

PARIS, March 9.—The municipal council has elected as its president M. Sautin, a well known socialist.

BELLAIUE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Just when Mayor McGowan and some of his police officers were in high glee at having a fellow locked up for robbery who declared he would "peach" on others if they didn't get him out of the scrape, he was given his liberty without any hindrance whatever. He is the man who gave the name of Morton, who robbed the driver of $30, as published in yesterday's paper. There wasn't a lock broken or a mark of any kind about the jail, yet Morton's cell was unlocked and both the doors to the jail, and he walked out the front way and took the 11:40 Baltimore & Ohio train eastbound. The mayor says he is anxious to purge his administration of any officers who would assist in the escape of any prisoner and two suspensions from the force are freely talked of, but Illa Honor was called to St. Clairsville yesterday as a witness.

The lecture of Russell H. Conwell at the Christian church this evening is the last of the series. Never before did Bellaire sustain a lecture course with one-half the degree of interest that has been manifested during this winter. No church in the city is large enough to comfortably seat all who have desired to attend, and they have been a success financially to the projectors.

The petition to provide additional money for the completion of the pikes is being signed by nearly everybody to whom it is presented. Everybody admits part of the money already expended has been wasted in the light of subsequent events, but there never was a public improvement of that kind made in which some money was not wasted.

In response to the request of the merchants here, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company announces that a change in the arrival and departure of the accommodation train from the west will be duly considered in making out the spring and summer schedule.

Some of the neighboring newspapers are enlarging upon the talk of the window glass men about starting a tank furnace. There is nothing whatever done in the premises except to informally discuss the propriety of doing such a thing.

George Boleman, a lad who was working at Heatherington's coal works, fell in the river off the flats yesterday afternoon and was drowned. His body was recovered soon afterwards and Coroner Lloyd held an inquest.

Last Excursion to Washington via Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

On Thursday, March 10th, the B. & O. R. R. will run the last of the series of excursions to Washington which have become so popular during the winter. This excursion will in no wise differ from those which have preceded, and which have given entire satisfaction to the hundreds who have enjoyed them. There will be the same low rate and the same unexcelled train service of passenger coaches and Pullman Parlor or Sleeping Cars heretofore provided.

Washington is more attractive in March, if possible, than during any other month of the year. It is then that the first signs of spring appear in the public squares and parks. Congress is in session. The public buildings, the art galleries and the museums are open to visitors free of charge.

Tickets from Pittsburgh, Wheeling and intermediate points to Martinsburg are valid to Baltimore, and as they are good for ten days ample time is afforded for side trips to Mt. Vernon, Old Point Comfort and other adjacent points. Tickets valid on all trains, whether limited, express or local, going and returning.

Trains leave Wheeling at 6:10 a. m. and 6:10 p. m., and for these two trains only will tickets be sold. Pullman sleeping cars on evening train. Round trip rate $10.00. Correspondingly low rates from other stations. MVRW
